

<https://www.aclusocal.org/en/publications/supporting-students-experiencing-homelessness>

Key Findings:

- Liaisons' information is frequently unavailable for students and families experiencing homelessness.
- Liaisons lack the capacity and resources to do their jobs effectively.
- Liaisons cannot effectively refer students and families to outside services, especially housing.
- Schools do not effectively identify students experiencing homelessness.
- The majority of school districts in California have adopted the nationally-recognized best practice of designating a homeless liaison at every school site.

Jim "Bo" Bolas
Engaged Community Consulting
www.jimbolas.com

Sent from my iThing